John's Gospel is telling us that we are meant to echo the nature of Christ's love.

This means humility, sacrifice, and service.

Our approach to others, especially between fellow Christians, should be characterized by those traits.

The idea of laying down one's life, means something more constant than a single act.

Let us pray, that we might see one another through the eyes of Christ and serve freely in love.

Hey SENIORS!!

ST. PETER THE APOSTLE CLASS OF 2024:

The graduates and families of the graduating class of 2024 would like to express a thank you to the parishioners of Holy Trinity for their support towards our Grad Bake Sale Fundraiser held in April. The proceeds of $2,500. will be used to defray the costs of the "Cap and Gown" ceremony. Thank you and God bless you all!

"I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another."

To us it may seem that God's love is demanding. It is full of spirit and promise—yet it just simply means that He unconditionally loves all the people in the same way. Therefore, we need to obey His command which is to love other people whatever circumstances they might be in.

Are you 'obeying' his command?

SYNOD PART I: THE FACE OF THE SYNODAL CHURCH

5. A Church "out of every tribe, tongue, people and nation"

d) In the face of increasingly hostile attitudes toward migrants, we are called to practice an open welcome, to accompany them in the construction of a new life and to build a true intercultural communion among peoples. Respect for the liturgical traditions and religious practices of migrants is an integral part of an authentic welcome.

e) The Church teaches the need for and encourages the practice of interreligious dialogue as part of building communion among all peoples. In a world of violence and fragmentation, a witness is ever more urgent to the unity of humanity, its common origin and common destiny, in a coordinated and reciprocal solidarity toward social justice, peace, reconciliation and care for our common home. The Church is aware that the Spirit can speak through women and men of every religion, belief and culture.

Please note all quotes are taken from the XVI Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops: A Synodal Church in Mission Synthesis Report.
