

HOLY TRINITY CATHOLIC CHURCH

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time—September 28, 2025

We learn many lessons from those who go to heaven. But in the story of the rich man and Lazarus, the lesson comes from one who goes to hell. The parable is unique to Luke's Gospel and fits in well with his portrayal of Jesus as a friend of the poor and the oppressed. The parable has two distinct parts. In part one (vv 19-21), the rich man ignores the plight of Lazarus who only seeks to receive the crumbs from the man's table. In the second part (vv 22-31), the rich man becomes the afflicted party, who then appeals to Abraham to go warn his brothers lest they also end up in hell. Abraham tells the rich man that they will not listen to him just as they ignored Moses—the same way the Pharisees turn their back on Jesus. The parable is addressed to the Pharisees who believe that wealth is a token of God's blessing and poverty a sign of God's disfavor. It is not because of his wealth that the rich man finds himself in hell, but because he failed to use his wealth to bless those who were less fortunate. As one commentator put it: "The rich man failed to balance the equation between privilege and responsibility." For Jesus' disciples, the rich man is a negative witness to how one should use this world's goods. The parable clearly demonstrates that ill-used riches in this life will reap torment in the next life.

RCIA Sponsors Outreach

This year we have 25 Inquirers seeking to enter the Catholic church at Easter. Thanks be to God that He is calling so many people to be added to His flock. Please pray for each of these inquirers as they begin their journey to full communion with the Catholic Church.

Each of these inquirers will require a sponsor, someone to journey with them. Our Team would like to ask that anyone who feels called to accompany one of these people, to pray about it and let us know. For more information on the role of a sponsor, contact AnnaMarie at am.shuler@hotmail.com

A huge thank you to Lydia Petterson and all the ladies who helped to make the flower beds so beautiful this summer!

NATIONAL DAY FOR

TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION (NDTR)

Holy Trinity Parish office will be closed
Tuesday, September 30th as we observe this holiday.

This day provides an opportunity for all Canadians to recognize and commemorate the legacy of residential schools, and commit to working for truth and reconciliation in the relationship between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples in Canada.

Unlike other holidays, the NDTR is not just a day off from work. Instead it is very much a day when we encourage our whole Catholic community to take up the work of prayer and reflection, of learning and listening, of reaching out and reaching forward toward a new relationship of healing and reconciliation with Indigenous peoples of this land.

Parishioners are urged to make a serious commitment to pray at least one Hail Mary, an "Ave", every day for our pastors, Fr. Paul and Fr. Joselito. Together we can provide thousands of prayers with our love, appreciation and care for God's great gift to us in our parish priests.

Ave Apostolate of Prayer for Priests is a new prayer movement in the Archdiocese of Edmonton and is being introduced to our parish this weekend.
