Word of God Sunday

Jesus Calls the First Disciples

After John the Baptist is arrested, Jesus steps into the spotlight. He moves from Nazareth to Capernaum, a larger town on the Sea of Galilee. Capernaum will be home base for Jesus and his followers as they travel throughout Galilee. Like John, Jesus urges people to repent because God's kingdom is coming. The difference is that Jesus is the one through whom it comes .

Disciples choose their master, not vice versa. Jesus hasn't yet done anything to recommend him to the Galilean fishermen, yet at his command they leave their family and livelihood and become traveling preachers. These men will help Jesus build up what we now call the church .

Verse 23 points ahead to the next two sections of the Gospel in which Jesus teaches and then heals people as he brings about God's kingdom. · His teaching informs people how they are to live within God's kingdom · His preaching (or proclamation) is the good news that through him the fullness of God's kingdom is coming · His miracles reveal that God's light has begun to shine throughout Galilee.

PRAYER

by Cardinal Timothy Manning

O Holy Spirit of God,
take me as your disciple.
Guide me, illuminate me, sanctify me.
Bind my hands that they may do no evil.
Cover my eyes that they may see evil no more.
Sanctify my heart that evil may not dwell within me.
Be my God. Be my guide.
Wherever you lead me, I will go.
Whatever you forbid, I will renounce.
And whatever you command me,
in your strength I will do.
Lead me into the fullness of your truth. Amen.

"The love of God and neighbor, the greatest commandment, is expressed in and is the fruit of, Eucharistic worship." (St. John Paul II)

Please don't forget your daily Ave Maria for our priests!
