

Happy Mother's Day!

HOLY TRINITY CATHOLIC CHURCH
6th Sunday of Easter
May 10, 2026

If we are bound to Christ, if we love him and have him, then we will keep his commandments. If we are bound to Christ, then Christ seeks whatever it is we need from the Father. And the best thing that they can give us, out of the bonds of love, is the Holy Spirit, who is the Spirit of truth.

Jesus explains being bound to God in the negative because of the truth of the positive: to know love is to be able to receive it; to know God is to be able to receive God the Spirit. Drawing upon the distinction made between those who willfully and woefully choose to reject God and do not come to know God (a synonym for belief in the gospel of John), Jesus says that the world will not receive the Spirit because it does not see nor know it

But just as we know our connection with Jesus by living the way Jesus would live (i.e., keeping his commands), we know the Spirit by living with the truth—truth that others might reject or deny because it doesn't fit their own schema or plans or needs, but one which we know from the inside out is true, because the Spirit abides with you, and will be in you.

If you
Love me,
keep my
commandments.
JOHN 14:15

CATHOLIC EDUCATION WEEK 2026

MAY
9-15,
2026

"We have this hope, a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul, a hope that enters the inner shrine behind the curtain."

Hebrews 6: 18-19

Dear Jesus, let your light shine in our Catholic schools.

Let your grace rain down, bringing hope to each person we encounter, wisdom to our teachers and leaders, and strength in times of trial.

Protect us from harm. Let the children come to You, for the kingdom of God is theirs.

St Thomas Aquinas, patron saint of Catholic schools,

Pray for us.

Amen.
