HOLY TRINITY CATHOLIC CHURCH

ALL SAINTS

November 1, 2026

In the Beatitudes, Jesus reminds us that true happiness is not found in wealth, power, or worldly success, but in living with humility, mercy, compassion, and love. He calls us to be peacemakers, to seek righteousness, and to remain faithful even during times of suffering and hardship.

Jesus assures us that God sees our struggles, hears our prayers, and blesses those who place their trust in Him. The Beatitudes challenge us to look beyond ourselves and bring God's love to others through our words and actions.

May we strive each day to live the Beatitudes, finding joy not in what we possess, but in how faithfully we love and serve God and one another.

Please note: The Office will be closed until 2:00 pm on Thursday, November 5, 2026.

Jamaica News

Thanks to your generosity, we have raised $41,280 to support our brothers and sisters in Jamaica.

My heartfelt thanks to all who contributed. Despite the difficult financial times, we passed our fundraising goal (by a lot!).

We have plans for another mission trip to Jamaica next April 4-11. If you are interested, please contact Deacon Pat.

"A Holy Hour before the Most Blessed Sacrament so pleases the Heart of Jesus, that every man, woman and child on earth receives a new effect of God's graces." (St. Faustina)
