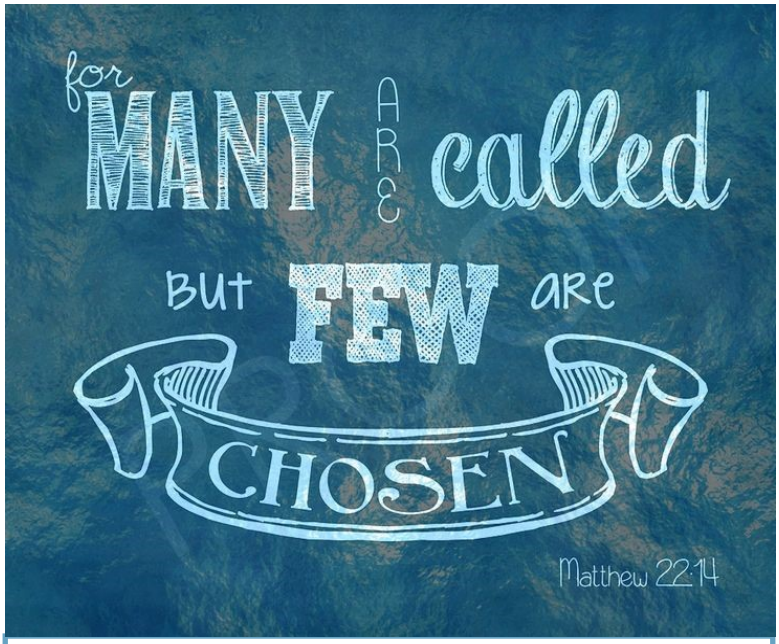
HOLY TRINITY CATHOLIC CHURCH

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 11, 2026



In today's Gospel, Jesus compares the Kingdom of Heaven to a wedding banquet. God generously invites everyone to share in His joy, yet some refuse the invitation. This reminds us that God's love and grace are freely offered, but we must choose to respond.

The wedding garment represents a heart prepared for God—a life of faith, love, and conversion. It is not enough simply to accept God's invitation; we are called to live as faithful disciples.

Today, let us ask ourselves: Am I truly responding to God's invitation, or am I allowing other things to take priority? May we open our hearts to God and come to His banquet with lives transformed by His love.
